On Celvary's mountain,
Shed His life blood for thy soul;
Do not reject Him,
Just now scope; Him,
The boutlen sway He will roll,
And you shall be cleaned and made whole.

Will you, poor sinner,
Come now to Jesus,
Come now to Jesus,
While He wants to forgive;
While He is witting
And gently calling,
Look away to Jesus now and live,
Oh, sinner, look away to Him and live.

7 A Farewell Song.

CAPT, JAH, DAWSON,

Toman Personal Mathers TAREWELL comrades, I mu you;
Marching orders came to day,
And I've promised my dear Saviour
I would follow all the way,
We have had some giornous vistories
While we've fought here side by sie;

May our hearts be always pure, Kept beneath the cleaning tide. Reverall compades we may no Meet together here again, But we all can meet in heaven; When the Saviour comes to rig:

Farewell Christians, all your talents Farswell Christians, all your telents Will be counted by the Lord, And if used for His own glovy, We shall hear Him say the word; Which will spen heaven to us, "Well done," faithful goy Of the Lord, prepared for you,"

Be ye always up and doing, Never let a chance go by, Saving scale out of the fire, Xou'll be rewarded in the sky,

Parewell sinners, sh! how often Farewell sinners, ah! how often
We have warned you to flee
From the wrath we know is coming,
And from sin just now get free;
For the Saviour waits in mercy, For the Saviour waits in mercy, Can you, will you yet delay? Oh, my bracker and my aister, Clome, oh, come, get saved to-day.

Farewell sinner, we may never See each other here again, But you know we've warned you fd To escape the pit of bell.
